CULTURAL OUTREACH

PROGRAMME

IRN BRU

What is it? Scotland's national soft drink, allegedly made from steel girders. Failsafe hangover cure. Terrifying.

What does it taste like? Medicine. Girders. Hangovers.

MALTESERS

What is it? Crispy feathery daydreams captured in a chocolate shell.

What does it taste like? Heaven.

DAIRY MILK

What is it? Substandard vegetable-oil-based chocolate only enjoyed by children and the infirm.

What does it taste like? Candle wax and cavities. And Christmas.

PARTY RINGS

What is it? Iced biscuit served at children's parties in the 80s. Used to be more neon before many 80s additives were outlawed.

What does it taste like? Coma-inducingly sweet. Strangely moreish.

JAFFA CAKES

What is it? The UK's finest contribution to existence.

What does it taste like? Orangy spongy sex on a convenient chocolate disc.

CADBURY HEROES

What is it? Handy small versions of Cadbury's sweets, most notable for the ALL-NEW Creme Egg Twisted.

What does it taste like? Much better than the full-sized sweets. Be sure to hoard your favourite type of Hero so no one else can have any.

PERCY PIGS

What is it? Pig-faced chewy raspberry candy from Marks & Spencer. Chris Phin can dispatch a whole bag of these in 0.3 seconds.

What does it taste like? Better than an actual pig face.

DISPRIN

What is it? Medicine no one uses, ever, you weirdo.

What does it taste like? Awful. Get some Nurofen Meltlets – they're lemon!

OXFORD MARMALADE

What is it? Bitter orange jam to put on toast.

What does it taste like? Orangy. What did the chick say when the hen laid a citrus fruit? "Look at the orange Mama-laid!" I thank you.

MARKS & SPENCER BACON

RASHERS

What is it? Wheat crisps with distinctive and realistic bacon taste.

What does it taste like? Scrumptious. Like a hog roast in your mouth.

FAIRY

What is it? Washing up liquid.

What does it taste like? I wouldn't.

TYRRELLS SWEET CHILLI & RED PEPPER CRISPS

What is it? Artisan handmade spiced crisps. Good with beer. Or on their own.

What does it taste like? Bloody brilliant. I could live on them.
